

PAYMENT FOR MUNICIPAL WASTE DISPOSAL FEE

The municipal waste disposal fee applies to all foreigners:

- with permanent residency,
- who reside temporarily in the Czech Republic for more than 3 months,
- who are applicants for international protection or are tolerated persons under the Asylum Act, or applicants for temporary protection,
- who have been granted international protection or temporary protection.

To pay the municipal waste disposal fee, you are required to register and meet the reporting obligation for the local waste fee.

- If you fail to meet this obligation, you may be fined.
- The fee applies to all residents who have been living in the city for more than 3 months.
- Registration can also be done retroactively.
- Registration for the fee: must be done in person at the City Hall or Municipal Office.
  - o Here, you will also receive detailed information on how to pay the fee, the amount, and the payment intervals. If paying by bank transfer, you will be assigned a variable symbol (VS).

Kindly be aware that payments must be made individually for each household member, not for the entire family!

ATTENTION! If you are moving out of the city, make sure to cancel your registration for the fee. Otherwise, you may continue to be charged.
